

Template for Newsbriefing articles

Title

By [authors names]

Author photos:

Please provide a head shot photo of all authors. Each author photo should be titled with name, profession & country

Content:

Newsbriefing includes case reports, news, practice-based articles, reviews of books and exhibitions, etc. Newsbriefing is not an academic publication and submissions can be written in a style less formal than for peer-reviewed journals.

Word limits:

- Case reports should be of no more than 3,500 words in length.
- Articles or other written contribution should be of no more than 2,000 words in length.
- Book reviews should use the template provided on the Newsbriefing webpage, be of no less than 800 and no more than 1,200 words in length, and include a critique of the book (including strengths & weaknesses) and references to current evidence and practice published elsewhere. Please include an image of the book (front cover).

Images:

- Authors should include between 1 (minimum) and 5 images (maximum).
- All photographs of artwork should be high quality and of professional standard.
- Please note that Newsbriefing cannot guarantee that all images will be published.

References:

Please use APA style referencing.

Informed consent:

Authors are advised that they need to follow legal requirements about data protection law and obtain informed consent from clients if their images or details are included in the article, even if these are anonymised. As some Newsbriefing articles are selected for public dissemination, informed consent should be obtained before submission for publication in Newsbriefing, on the BAAT website and across BAAT social media platforms.

How to submit

Please send all submissions to Newsbriefing@baat.org

Editing and copyright

We reserve the right to edit or amend articles for length and content or to refuse them at our discretion. Original articles and other contributions published in Newsbriefing may be reproduced only with permission from the British Association of Art Therapists and the named author.